PACB is excited to once again work with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) to provide the Directors and Trustees College. This session is designed to provide continuing education to bank executives, directors and trustees on current and relevant topics and various elements of bank supervision.

Agenda and Sessions:

8:30–8:40 a.m.

Welcome / Opening Remarks

FDIC Regional Director John Vogel and Regional Manager Darnell Sutton

8:40–9:30 a.m.

Redlining: You've Identified Redlining Risk... Now What?

Presenter: Senior Compliance Examiner LFI Dominic Sciamè

This session will provide an overview of redlining risks and discuss the board's role in mitigating such risks and how the board and management could respond to heightened redlining risk. Attendees will have the opportunity to apply what they learn in an interactive case study.

9:30–10:20 a.m.

Liquidity Contingency Planning and Risk Mitigation

Presenter: Capital Markets Specialist Michael Aldrich

This presentation will discuss the key components of effective planning and risk mitigation in the context of liquidity to underscore the importance preparation.

10:20–10:35 a.m.

Break

10:30–11:15 a.m.

Risk Assessments: The Basics, the Benefits and the Pitfalls

Presenters: Supervisory Examiner Kerry Schaffer and Field Supervisor Kimberley Powell

This presentation will discuss the benefits and importance of a well-developed risk assessment, particularly from the perspective of directorates. We will also share with you some shortcomings that may manifest in the absence of an adequate risk assessment process.

11:15–12:15 p.m.

Conversation with Regulators

Presenters: Regional Director John Vogel, Deputy Regional Directors Mary Barry and Scott Strockoz, and Assistant Regional Directors Catherine Coni, Amanda Dubuque and Rob Cordiero

This session will provide an informal setting for participants to hear what is on regulators' minds and to share experiences and insights as a community bank board member. Members of the FDIC regional management team will highlight emerging issues, answer participant questions, and discuss topics raised by participants. This session structure will include prepared remarks, as well as an open forum for questions and discussion.

12:15–1:15 p.m.

Lunch and Economic/Banking Update

Presenters: Acting Regional Manager Stephen Simpson and Economic Analyst Daniel Weeks

During lunch, presenters from the FDIC's Division of Insurance and Research will provide national and local economic data to assist attendees in identifying key trends that have impacted and may continue to impact the industry.

Who Should Attend:

This program is designed for CEOs, inside directors/trustees, and outside directors/trustees.
